

GO ORGANIC

THE ORGANIC NETWORK IN EAST AFRICA

Background

The Organic Network in East Africa was founded in 2012 by ITCOA (International Training Course on Organic Agriculture) alumni to provide a platform on which to build a sustainable organic network across East African borders. We bring together individuals, companies, students, organizations, institutions to promote organic principles and values. It is a multi-national initiative being managed under country-specific chapters.

Vision

Organic agriculture for improved health, economic and environmental sustainability in East Africa

Mission

To build a sustainable organic network across East Africa through knowledge sharing and capacity building upholding the organic principles and values

Activities

- # Providing a networking platform for organic stakeholders across East Africa
- # Building the capacity of East African students and professionals in organic agriculture through opportunity sharing
- # Establishing a pool of organic experts trained within ITCOA and other organic programs
